

Environmental Justice Curriculum Chart

Modes of Understanding	Fall Orientation: Boots on Exploration	Trimester 1: Land and Animal Management	Thanksgiving Break	Trimester 2: Water and Air	Winter Intensive: Winter Ecology	Trimester 3: Continental Adaptation	Spring Intensive: Grand Gulch
Historical		Government Structure and different management levels		Who owns what?		What is Africa and its history
Literary		What is Environmental Justice. The Tragedy of the Commons		Selective Readings: i.e. Silent Spring, Cadillac Desert		The Power of One. and various short stories
Scientific		Scientific Methodology. Carrying Capacity		What are our limits? Water cycles and climate studies		Bioregionalism
Quantitative		Introduction to Statistics. How to tell your story		EPA allowances		What makes up Africa? True Costs of development
Artistic		Observation and Scientific Sketching		The Center		Map design and cultural investigation
Experiential		Public Forum/Debate		Shackleton		Redesigning Africa Conference	